Pastoral Letter

As the school term progresses, Gareth and I are sharing a series of children talks on some of The Judges from the book of Judges. Deborah is one such Judge. She trusted God completely even though the task God set for her seemed impossible and overwhelming. Before Deborah could even start on the practicalities of her task, she took time out to listen to God. Deborah's preferred place to sit and listen to God was under a Palm Tree, that was her quiet place. In Proverbs chapter 3 v 5-6 it says 'Trust in the Lord your God and lean not on your own understanding.' I'm sure that many of us would not have chosen or often understand the tasks that we are called to do, sometimes it feels like trudging through mud, or swimming through sinking sand, sitting under a palm tree, praying and listening to God feels a million miles away when we are stuck in the middle of our 'tasks', but during those palm tree moments God equips each one of us, strengthens us and renews our spirit. Our children's groups are called F.R.O.G. groups – fully rely on God. This is exactly what Deborah did.

Our seasons change, and our journeys continue, the tasks God calls us to do become many and varied but through all the challenges and times ahead to F.R.O.G or not to F.R.O.G is never the question.... its only ever the answer.

Blessings as we Spring forward.

Elaine Watkinson.

New Ministers

It is great to be able to share with you the names of the two new ministers who will be joining the circuit this year. Rev Louise Carr will be our new superintendent based in Gainsborough. Louise is currently superintendent in the Bradford South Circuit. Rev Sarah Parkin joins us as a probationary minister based in Caistor, she comes to us from the Birmingham area.

As you will be aware Liz Childs 'sits down' this year (strange Methodist language for retiring!) and Andrew will be leaving country life behind for the urban Midlands, where he will be superintendent of the Loughborough Circuit.

Please remember them in your prayers, especially welcoming the newcomers, who will feel like strangers in an alien place, to begin with.

Church Contact: Mr M James 01472 851965

Advent in Caistor can be summed up in one word “WOW”. All through December, our Church family have been involved with all the activities which have been going on. We had a Faith Tea and carols which was a great evening of fun and fellowship. Our Sunday School prize-giving on the Sunday morning focused on the shepherds, their sheep and this involved the children and the adult. In the evening, 9 brave souls went around Caistor singing carols, which raised £174 for Action for Children. We had a great time and were invited into two homes for some Christmas cheer.

The following weekend was our coffee, cribs, craft and chat morning where everyone was welcome. During December, there had been a “Sheep Trail” around the town and a competition to find all the sheep-prizes were given at the coffee morning. Many people took part and many sheep had been knitted. It brought back memories of the “old Caistor Sheep Fair” of many years ago.

The following day was our drama service, when volunteers took part in the Nativity. In the evening, a united Carol Service with our Anglican friends was led in Chapel.

Carols by Candlelight on Christmas Eve took the form of a Christingle which was very well attended as was the Christmas morning service.

During December, Mary and Joseph were welcomed into our homes where they stayed overnight before moving on until Christmas Eve when they were brought into Chapel for Christmas. This is called Posada.

Christmas day lunch was provided in our Church Hall when 37 people sat down to a meal of roast turkey and all the trimmings, Christmas pudding and mince pies etc. This was mainly for people who live on their own and who otherwise would be on their own for Christmas day. A great feast and a time of fellowship was enjoyed by everyone.

The total sum of money collected over the Christmas services and the Charity coffee mornings was £757.57 which was sent to Action for Children. Also, 9 bags of food were taken to Harbour place in Grimsby.

As I said at the start of my report “wow”, Advent has been a wonderful time in Caistor, through a lot of hard work and generosity, the love of God has been shining through all that has been done.

God bless you all and may 2015 be a year of blessing and thankfulness to God for His wonderful love.

Our Community Carol Service was held on December 18th starting at 6pm. It was led by Rev Anne Coates and Jane ram played the organ. We had a good congregation as we were United with the parish Church Members of various groups from the village; Bowls club, Short Tennis Group, Friendship Club read poems on a theme of Christmas and the bible passages were read by Church members. Supper was served in the schoolroom and it was a really good start to Christmas.

We welcomed Mr Tim Smith for our service on January 11th. It was good to see him and we were able to sing the hymns from hymns and Psalms as Jane was playing the organ. Anne Butler and Christine Waite read two of the lessons. It was a lovely service and it was lovely to be back at our Chapel after the Christmas holiday.

Among all the other Christmas activities, on December 7th we were delighted to welcome one new member by baptism, one by reinstatement ,and one(later) by transfer from another denomination. A wonderful start to the Christmas season.

We had, in effect, two Carol Service: one at Gainsborough Trinity Football ground (see report below), and one on 21st December, led by Dennis Lockwood. The Christmas Eve Communion, at the early time of 6.00pm, was well attended, as was Christmas Day, when we were able to see some of the gifts already received, and hear about those who had not yet received anything.

January was bound to be quieter, although the Covenant Service (this year on 4th January) is always an important moment as we start the New Year. All the regular meetings/groups have restarted, as have the meetings! Gainsborough churches join together on 25th January for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, this year at the United Reformed Church at 3.00pm.

Gainsborough Remembers- 14th December 2014

It is one of those remarkable stories: the Christmas 1914 truce, when British and German soldiers interrupted the war and met together in no man's land to sing carols, play football, exchange food, cigarettes and souvenirs. Peace reigned, if only for that day.

On Sunday 14th December about 200 people met at Gainsborough Trinity football ground, to honour that event. Teams from Morton Trentside and the Parish School played football - very entertainingly and competitively. We sang ten carols, accompanied by the Market Rasen Salvation Army band and musicians from New Life Church and the Methodist Church. The choir from Morton Trentside sang a Christmas song.

The event was promoted by the churches in Gainsborough, with a great deal of help from people at Gainsborough Trinity, who hosted us and provided hot drinks. It was a rather (!) cold afternoon, but was enjoyed by those who braved the weather. The carols and football of 1914 were remembered, the Christmas peace re-enacted.

Back in print again after the winter break? We're so pleased to begin the New Year offering our grateful thanks to all those who led and joined us in worship, spent time praying for us and supported our work, both as a church and on the God Pod.

All in all God has blessed us with a strong sense of mission and outreach and we at Glenthams enjoy the many challenges we face, knowing through prayer He is with us every step of the way.

As we enter the year Messy church, Family church, Holiday Club, Men's breakfast, Sugar and Spice, "Presence" Prayer & Bible study and the God Pod are all being prayerfully planned and thanks be to God for the harvest. Whilst some parents and children have left us, we have all enjoyed immensely seeing the increase in children from Hemswell cliff coming to church.

Over the past three years we have so gratefully received an anonymous donation to help support families experiencing hard times at Hemswell cliff , this year through the generosity of the Salvation Army in Market Rasen we have also been able to hand out quite a number of gifts too. All for His glory, His praise and His honour.

Isn't God wonderful, His never ending blessings fill our lives and enable us all to pass on His love to others through all the changing scenes of life in trouble and in joy.

We pray you all enjoy a Spirit filled blessed 2015

Please ring and offer to partner us in prayer whilst we're out on the God Pod - dates are on the plan.

God bless

215 Years of Methodism in Gringley on the Hill

John Wesley recorded in his Journal that he preached twice at Gringley on the Hill when he was in his seventies in 1774 and 1776.

In 1800 the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel was established in the High Street on a site now occupied by the front garden of High Levels. It was rebuilt and enlarged on the same site in 1836.

Two years later, in 1838, the first Primitive Methodist Chapel was built on the corner of West Wells Lane and Cross Hill, serving its community for fifty years. As the congregation increased there was a need for a new commodious chapel. The Duke of Portland was approached for a lease of land, for £200. In March 1888, John Wills, Architects of Derby, completed the drawings and by October 1888 the chapel was constructed and completed by Mr William Hill for the sum of £557 on the corner of Cross Hill and Little Lane, to be known as Little Lane Chapel, but also the Low Street Chapel. The original Primitive Methodist Chapel was subsequently used as a schoolroom following the construction of the present chapel. The schoolroom has since been sold as a private dwelling.

The two chapels amalgamated in 1958, worshipping in Little Lane Chapel as this congregation was higher and the building was in better condition. The High Street organ was installed in Little Lane chapel. Subsequently, the High Street Wesleyan Chapel was closed and sold. The combined Methodist Church was part of the Gainsborough Methodist Circuit, now the Wolds and Trent Circuit.

Sadly, with the gradual decline of the church membership and ever increasing costs, the decision has been made to close. After 126 years of worship in Gringley Methodist Church, its final service is on Sunday March 1st 2015 at 3p.m.

Rev. Stuart Gunson, who was minister in Gringley from 1999 to 2004, will be leading the service.

To celebrate your memories and fellowship in Gringley Methodist Church, or you have never seen inside the church, please come and join us for a while on Saturday 31st January 2015 between 11a.m. and 3p.m.

Reminisce the Sunday School Anniversaries, Harvest Festivals, Chapel Outings, fund raising events, Carol Concerts and the life of the chapel. Listen to the beautiful sound of the organ. The church is delighted that it will be re-installed, continuing to be played and appreciated.

Stay for a while for a drink or a buffet lunch, between noon and 2pm. We would love you to share any old photos you may have to help us remember those faithful members of the church.

The Members of the Church would like to thank all those who have supported them through worship, fellowship, maintenance, the coffee afternoons, 4 Parishes Flower Festival and monetary donations.

Come and party to celebrate the Life of Methodism in Gringley on the Hill.

We have just had our covenant service here at Market Rasen when we renew our vows of faithfulness in response to the promise God made to us all those years ago, that He would never abandon His people. From the covenant of the rainbow after the flood (Genesis 9), through the covenant established with Abram (Genesis 17), the renewal of the covenant with Moses (Exodus 34) to the last supper of Jesus (Mark 14) when He refers to the sealing of the covenant with His blood, God's faithfulness to His people has never wavered. Though human beings have repeatedly failed to keep their part of the covenant bargain throughout the ages, His promise remains, "the same yesterday, today and tomorrow".

Yes, humans are weak and flawed but we are made in His image and almost in spite of ourselves, elements of God's love and generosity peep through our failings. Think of people's response to charity appeals to help the victims of catastrophes, some natural and some man-made. Just a little example:

We could hardly get into our chapel school room for worship today (18 January) because of about fifty "banana boxes". What a response there has been for the churches' "Clothes for Iraq" appeal! And before Christmas, our folk at Rasen responded so generously to our selected charity this year, the Nomad Trust. People, especially, but not exclusively, Christian folk really do want to help. Every week, when our offering is taken, we pray to the effect that God has given us so much and our collection is simply a token of our gratitude and our love of God. It is the better part of human nature to have compassion, to show sympathy and to try our best, in some small way, to alleviate pain and suffering.

But in spite of the good that we do, we so often fall short. Even Saint Paul himself knew so well this dilemma: "For what I want to do, I do not do, but what I hate, I do." (Romans 7:15).

But God knows our weaknesses and He gives us the gift of prayer to support us. As the hymn writer says:

“Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged—
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

So as we Methodists renew our covenant in this new year, to try to keep our side of the bargain of faithfulness with God, we pray, as we often do in our worship, “With God’s help, we will”.

December was a very busy month one way and another! I’m only going to mention two services that stand out to me – admittedly I was away for one or two of them!!

On 20th December, the fourth candle was lit (in the ring of candles), this being the candle lit for the Virgin Mary, the others being 1) for the new born king and God’s promise to his people; 2) for the prophets; 3) for the Baptist; 4) for the Virgin Mary and, finally on Christmas Day, the central candle is lit. The service was taken by the stewards and led by Brian Cook. Catherine and Ray Wyllie sang a solo together. The most popular song voted for last year was ‘O Holy Night’. Their voices harmonise beautifully together. All the carols on this day were taken from ‘Singing the Faith’. We were warned at the beginning that some of the words had been changed from those which we were familiar with. Ray and Malcolm Woolf read from a copy of the Little Book that soldiers carried in their pocket when they went into battle during the First World War, comparing what happened on that first Christmas Day in the trenches with the birth of Jesus. The shepherds had seen a great light and the soldiers saw the light of the Christmas trees across ‘No Man’s Land’ which the Germans had lit. The Germans could be heard singing ‘Silent Night’ so the British soldiers joined in. How wonderful that must have sounded! Then, unbelievably, the next day – Christmas Day – the Germans ran out onto No Man’s Land and started to kick a football about. The British soldiers joined in!! But the truce was not to last!

The shepherds followed the Star and found Jesus (but didn’t go back to tell Herod – they continued their journey in a different direction) and so the Christmas story had begun, showing God’s peace endures, although the truce didn’t. Then Ray (on his guitar) and Catherine (on her flute) played ‘Silent Night, Holy Night’. Ray pointed out that this carol had been written for the guitar by Joseph Marr, (who was an organist) when his organ was out of use. These services are always special and several people took part in the readings, with each one being accompanied by an appropriate carol. At night, there was a combined carol service at the Parish Church.

The Christmas Day Service was led by the Rev. Ann. The Church was full with several visitors and small children present as well. We have a tradition in our Church that anyone may bring one of their Christmas presents to show the rest of the congregation. The small children had been primed and showed us their presents amid many “ohs” and “ahs”! Then, as usual, Wilf Hankin gave us the giggles – he can be relied upon to do this each year! He is a keen gardener and Grimsby football fan. Wearing his Christmas tie, he showed us his new woolly hat with ‘The Lawn Ranger’ printed on it! He then presented the Rev Ann with a gift. It looked like a bottle of something, wrapped up in its’ case. He spread his hanky out over a small table before Anne opened the present because, he said “it might leak”! We watched with anticipation as Anne opened layer upon layer of wrapping paper to reveal - a leek! Wilf is famous for them! What a laugh! Then Ann showed us a present from her husband, Malcolm – a mug with a dog on it. She had been going on about wanting a dog all year and this was the nearest he could get!!!!

When we had entered Church, everyone had been given an After Eight mint and told not to eat it yet. When we got to our places, there was a small square of card and a pen on our seat. During the service, we observed a few minutes of silence after which we were then asked to write on one side of the card something we were grateful for – a ‘thank you’ – and on the other side, a request – a ‘please’.

We were then asked to slip the card into the empty ‘After Eight’ envelope, and these were then all collected up. It would have been nice to see what everyone had written. It was a lovely service.

We now look forward to a New Year and Middle Rasen wishes you all a very happy and peaceful year, free of worries and stress if that's possible!

Remember – the biggest snow ball begins as a single snowflake. So, if you have the smallest disagreement with someone, nip it in the bud before it gets any bigger and certainly don't go to bed without trying to right a wrong. Try to see the good in everyone – these were some of the things that my mother instilled into us when we were young.

February 7th and March 7th- Monthly Coffee Morning 10.30am-12 noon

The Nettleton Joint Churches Bazaar was a great success. Some people started to queue early and as the doors opened there was a flurry of folk looking for bargains. Father Christmas (Louis King) opened the proceedings with a reminder to be grateful for the presents you receive and to remember to say thank you to the person who gave them to you.

Buying was brisk as customer filled their bags and some of their cars before enjoying tea and mince pies. The raffle had many prizes and winners eagerly collected their winnings as the lucky numbers were call.

It was enjoyed by all who attended and on going said "see you next year".

After the money was counted, it was wonderful to realise the sum of £1212.00 had been raised! (£606 for both Church and Chapel)

Chapel representatives came together in Gainsborough Chapel to meet the prospective Superintendent for the Circuit. Louise Carr from Bradford who was accepted by us and she accepted the Post.

The new Probationer is Sarah Parkin from Birmingham who will be based in Caistor.

It was good to welcome friends from the Parish Church next door and from Caistor as Richard Alderson led the Carol Service with familiar Hymns and Carols and members of the congregation reading Lessons.

More fellowship followed as we enjoyed the refreshments served by Chapel members.

Hello everyone from all at Upton. We send you belated New Year wishes and hope that you are all well and have avoided the many bugs going round the past few weeks.

Our Christmas united service was a very moving celebration of the birth of Christ and I would like to thank everyone who took part or helped in any way. Our new year started very positively too with a visit from our District Chairman Rev. Bruce Thompson and his wife. Our Chapel was comfortably full and we enjoyed our fellowship with Bruce and his wife. During the service Bruce asked what we hope for in our future worship in Upton. Several issues were discussed and Bruce suggested that we may need to get out into the community more, rather than wait for the community to come into our chapel. It gave us food for thought and although we have heard the suggestion before maybe 2015 is the year to try and do something about it. Today we received the new "connexion" magazine. I have had a quick look through and the articles are full of hope and confidence that, through simple evangelical activities people are coming to know the love of God in their communities. The magazine is full of optimism. I pray that we can be optimistic for our future and work together for the good of the community. And finally.....

CAN ANYONE PLEASE HELP!!!!

Last summer our youth team had it's caravan, and all contents stolen. This was a devastating time for the youngsters. Since then they have been raising money to build up their resources once again, and over Christmas they had a stall at Upton's Christmas Market, and locals had had a quiz to help raise more money. We are taking it upon ourselves to ask if anyone has, or knows of an old caravan, that is no longer used, that could be used by the youth team to help them. Please help if you can!!

Thank you!!! With love from all at Upton. God bless!!

Fundraising for the Nomad Trust

Many thanks to all of you who have continued to raise money for the Nomad Trust.

I am very pleased to inform you that, with your help, we have now raised a very creditable £218.54 between September and December 2014, and £2236.41 overall since the project commenced.

Here is part of what the Rev Hamish Temple had to say in the recent Nomad Trust Christmas 2014 Newsletter:

'Time flies, and it doesn't seem like 18 months since the Nomad Trust merged with the Y.M.C.A. Our care for the homeless and ex-servicemen has continued while we seek ways of increasing the number of beds available. We have had a few false hopes, when plans that at first seemed possible proved impractical. The plan to double our accommodation from 40 to 80 looked good after a positive feasibility study. Government support was not forthcoming, so back to the drawing board.

The Nomad Trust and the Y.M.C.A. are aware of the needs of the homeless and the numbers, but within the financial constraints, we give as much support and care as we can. We make every pound count, and a big "thank you" to all the churches, businesses and individuals in Lincoln and surrounding area who give so generously. Without your help, we could not do what we do. Also a "thank you" to all the volunteers who give of their time with a big smile, and the staff who do such a wonderful job.'

My thanks to the congregation at Market Rasen for making the Nomad Trust the focus of their Christmas appeal and to all others who have either given donations or who have continued to save money in the collection boxes.

I have also been reunited with a veritable hoard of collection boxes, both old and new, at the Nomad Trust, and these should be on their way to churches as you are reading this. My apologies if you have been waiting a long time for one.

If you wish to help fundraise for Nomad using the collection box scheme, or have not been able to pick up a box at your church, please contact me on 01673 842391, or email ianh1910@gmail.com .

Best wishes,

Ian Hardcastle
