Pastoral Letter

Finding God in an unlikely place

At the beginning of His public ministry, Jesus said that the Holy Spirit had empowered Him to tell good news to the poor and to announce freedom for prisoners. Something really encouraging has been happening in the prisons of Britain over the last twenty years. The Alpha course has been adapted for use in prisons and the impact of it has been remarkable. The Lord has seen the desperate need of prisoners and He has sent people to love and accept them and to teach them about our gracious and forgiving Heavenly Father.

The good news of the Gospel is that the love of Jesus can give inner freedom to people behind bars. There are encouraging and inspiring testimonies from prisoners who describe how the Lord has changed them from the inside out. They willingly admit that formerly they were imprisoned by addictions and also unhealthy and diseased ways of relating to other people. The love of Jesus has set them free and they are full of joy because they know that the transformation is real and lasting. They know their sins are forgiven and they rejoice because they know Who has made it possible.

Alpha for prisons has expanded beyond the UK. It is thought that worldwide at least 250,000 prisoners have completed the Alpha course. If only 10% of them have stayed faithful to the Lord, that's a lot of new Christians whose lives changed dramatically for the better while they were in prison. Taking an optimistic view, I would hope that 10% is on the low side, although it would be naïve to think that a new Christian leaving prison could manage on their own without a strong and supportive Christian fellowship.

What can we do to help? Most of us won't be asked by the Lord to be directly involved with new Christians who became believers when they were serving a prison sentence. However, we can pray and our prayers will help the Christians in prison who are running Alpha and also the recently converted believers who are building a new life for themselves as they adjust to life beyond prison bars.

Some verses from chapter 6 of Ephesians (The Message) reassure us that prayer does make a difference:

Be prepared. You're up against far more than you can handle on your own. Take all the help you can get, every weapon God has issued, so that when it's all over you'll still be on your feet. God's Word is an indispensable weapon. In the same way, prayer is essential in this ongoing warfare. Pray hard and long. Pray for your brothers and sisters. Keep your eyes open. Keep each other's spirits up so that no one falls behind or drops out.

NEWS FROM AROUND THE CIRCUIT

As Mac wrote for the month of April Link, 'that we were half way through Lent,' I could say we are now on our way to Pentecost, in the Church year. Where does time go? We really do have to make the most of each day!

Unfortunately I missed out five weeks of the most important time of the year and so with the help of Barbara, we will reminisce about the busy, poignant, glorious wonderful time that Caistor has shared during this time.

On Maundy Thursday (The evening Jesus was betrayed) our Bible Lent study groups gathered together with others around tables, set in a square, and, as Jesus did on the night of the 'Last supper' shared bread, food and wine and sang hymns together.

Members from St.Peter and St.Pauls' joined with our congregation for the Good Friday service lead by Andrew, Ian, Bible readers and the congregation all taking a share in the service, which seemed to bring us all closer to Jesus and each other. A sad yet fulfilling occasion as we all quietly left the church, to continue with prayer a reading from the gospel of St Mark and of course, There is a green hill far away. In the market place. It was a damp, cold, windy morning but we certainly witnessed our love for the Lord there. Nearly everyone went back to church for Hot cross buns and much appreciated hot drink.

Easter Day was fully celebrated with a short service in the church garden and the dressing of the cross then indoors for breakfast, many attended and enjoyed, and then upstairs for the (usual) unusual celebration of The Risen Jesus Christ, with a full house, children included sharing the Sacrament. A very memorable service Barbara tells me. Then, downstairs again for coffee and cold cross buns. what a powerful weekend, well organised by many people, especially Andrew and Liz. Thank you to all concerned.

Then on Sunday April 12th, at Nettleton Village Hall there were yet more celebrations, A Birthday tea to wish Bettie (Hyde) Happy 90th birthday. Betty graciously thanked family and friends for sharing her happiness and memories. It really was a very happy occasion.

There will be another happy occasion on 27th April when the Brant family will share happy and poignant memories with Corrine and Mott, on their Diamond (60) Wedding Anniversary. An early congratulations to you both from all your Friends at the Chapel. Hope you have a lovely day, making yet more memories, and more to come.

May I finish off with my own appreciation and many thanks for daffodils on Mothering Sunday, and the Sunday after, (only threw the last ones out 3 days ago.) Also the 'Get well cards' and phone calls, even if you could not hear my reply. It was good to know you were all thinking of me.....Signing out,

Yvonne

We welcomed Malcolm Coates for our service on a cool Sunday morning in March. Malcolm brought with him a visitor to our Chapel. It was good to see them both. The heating in the Chapel was working again so we were able to use the organ to accompany the hymns. It was good to have Jane playing the organ too.

The previous Sunday some of us joined our friends from All Saints to celebrate Mothering Sunday together. It was a lovely service and we went home with handmade posies of garden flowers.

The following Sunday was Palm Sunday and Jane was able to play the organ for us. The members of the congregation chose the hymns. Two of them were Hymns that we had sung when were at school/Sunday school- still suitable for Palm Sunday. We used the readings from the Lectionary and Jane read a suitable passage from one of her books. We left the Chapel clutching our Palm crosses from a blustery, biting wind.

On Easter Sunday we joined with our friends at All Saints for the 9 o'clock service. The Church was warm and so was our welcome, the service was taken by David Post. He led the singing for "Jesus Christ is risen today", and "The Day of Resurrection".

This morning we had our Communion Service led Rev Anne. It was so good to have her with us. All the Hymns came from Singing the Faith accompanied by music from the appropriate discs. It was a lovely service and all went well.

Reviewing April's events and happenings, we start with Palm Sunday worship. There were about 120 there for a baptism, led by Rev. Liz Childs. Some even waved some flags. Easter Sunday started with breakfast together for those who could manage to get there. The service at 10.30 included communion and was led by Liz. Not quite so many people there, but still about 70 of us joined together to celebrate the wonder of Easter Sunday and the resurrection. The cross which is in church throughout Lent could now be decorated with daffodils, which lasted through to Low Sunday.

The premises are now much tidier thanks to a whole group of us who undertook clearing and cleaning. We hope that not too many precious things were thrown out, but an added bonus was to find things we thought were lost or that we didn't know we had. All we have to do now is keep it that way. May looks to be a quieter time. The regular groups have all started up again, with some rescheduling as Sarah Hoyes is now on maternity leave. We shall all be thinking about her as she and Joe prepare themselves for the birth. We should have the new carpet fitted, having consulted among ourselves what we could have. We shall see how good it looks.

A new prayer meeting starts up in May, gathering on the first Wednesday of the month at 10.30. At Pentecost the tradition is to do a prayer walk in the morning before church (followed by breakfast at Wetherspoons). During the walk we gather at various points around the town to pray for needs and to give thanks. At various businesses we leave a card telling them that we have prayed for them. A good tradition.

Palm Sunday being the 5th Sunday of the month we, the congregation did our usual and visited other churches in the Circuit. Some to Market Rasen and some to Gainsborough where we also enjoyed taking children from Hemswell Cliff. The service was most enjoyable, banners being given out and waved by us all.

Our Family Church led by Rev Anne involved the children, Megan, Jen, Charlie, Chloe and Brianna great to see them all sharing with us. What an exciting evening service with VISION our friends from Welton leading Praise and Worship on 12th April. The songs were exhilarating and the whole congregation, about 40, sang, waved arms and lifted up their voices in praise to our wonderful, compassionate God. Everyone said it really was a great evening.

‘Godspell’ produced by Sue Hodge, has been performed in the Groups around Glenthams and we were able to take the girls from Hemswell to the performance in the Epic Centre at the showground. It really was a most uplifting and thrilling performance, amateur though it might have been but we thought the performance very professional, a great night.

Our God Pod trips continue with prayer support over the past few weeks from Bridgett and Syd, Rachael, Mary, Cicely, Joyce, Elaine and Sonya. Many thanks to them all. Easter day we gave out helium filled balloons carrying the words ‘Jesus is alive’ ‘He is Risen’ wonderful to see them being carried around HC.

Please consider offering to help with prayer on the dates we visit, usually twice a month on Sunday afternoons, if you could give us a call to offer a date we would be most grateful.

God bless

The Jubilee Games

The 2015 Jubilee Games will take place on Saturday 6th June at RAF Scampton. As many of you will know, these games were the brainchild of Colin Hare and first took place in 2012 at Newtoft.

All four of the ex MOD sites in the area have been involved; the other two being Brookenby and Hemswell Cliff. It is one of very few activities which actually brings families from these often isolated communities together.

The Circuit has a close connection with several of the communities; Brookenby through our members at St Michael and All Saints Church; Newtoft, through the Middle Rasen Churches, and Hemswell Cliff with the work of Peter and Jenny Atkinson.

This year, we will again be running a raffle at the Jubilee Games in order to raise funds. If you would like to support us in this venture, we would be grateful to receive any gifts of prizes, or, if you prefer, a contribution towards Jubilee Games funds.

If you would like to come along on the day, the Jubilee Games commence at 10am and finish at 4pm. Access is via the ex MOD community road and not via the main RAF Station entrance.

Many thanks for your help in this venture.

The welcome arrival of the warmer weather brings increased activity in our homes, our gardens and our churches. Now we have the opportunity to clean and improve our premises and to plan new ventures. Here at Market Rasen we are planning to redecorate our schoolroom during August, ready for the new Methodist Year.

The United Good Friday Service was well attended and successful, even though the wet and windy weather meant we had to hold it inside this year. Our chapel was decorated with seasonal flowers and banners for our Easter Service which was led by the stewards due to the illness of our planned preacher.

Spring also brings the start of a wide ranging programme of concerts in our chapel. We enjoyed the humour of the ladies of Weelsby Wanderers, the mellow tones of Irish folk singer Frank McCaffrey and the uplifting presentation of Handel's Messiah, Part II, on Good Friday evening. During the coming months we will be hosting the songs and music of Da Capo, our popular local folk group and the first visit of Ally Harrison and Marion Curry, a folk duo from Ireland.

Our annual Spring Fair on Saturday 16th May, 10.00a.m. – 1.00p.m. will be held in conjunction with the Open Churches weekend. All are welcome to share in our many stalls, delicious refreshments and music from our chapel organ.

Over this past year several of the churches in our town have worked together to organise Messy Church sessions. These are held on the second Saturday of each month from 2.00p.m. – 4.00p.m. in the Primary School Hall and are proving to be very popular. Youngsters accompanied by an adult are warmly invited to join in the fun.

During the warmer months our services are once again held in the main church. We continue to be grateful to the ministers, preachers, organists and our music group who lead us in worship each week. We welcome all visitors to our services and events. More details can be obtained from our church stewards.

Some readers may have been puzzled to read that our April Link report was written by Glenda Taylor! In fact it was contributed by Yvonne Walls.
Greetings from Market Rasen!

Easter has been and gone! It is a lovely time of year with so many promises of what is to come. We can forget the sadness of Good Friday and look forward to sun-filled days of hope and regeneration, a brighter future around the world. It is up to each of us to make this happen! After a dreary winter, the colour yellow (such a vibrant colour!) is everywhere – daffodils, primroses, forsythia, and mahonia, etc. Rape is beginning to break out in the fields. What is there to be sad about?!

On Easter Sunday, with Rev Anne leading the service as usual, everyone took a small posy of flowers to put on the cross which stood among rocks that had been place there on Good Friday, and turned the cross from one of sorrow to one of joy. It always looks so beautiful. After the service it is put outside the Chapel for everyone to see – both villagers and passers-by – to remind them of what happened all those years ago. Easter Sunday was a communion Sunday and, previous to the service, the congregation was invited to have breakfast and then, afterwards, coffee, biscuits and chocolate eggs.

The previous week, Palm Sunday, we joined the Parish Church. A donkey led the procession stopping now and then for prayers and hymns, prior to the service which was led by our Ian Hardcastle. He likened what happened before Palm Sunday to the present preparations for voting!!!

The Guild has come to an end until next October. At the final meeting Ray Wylie and his Friends entertained us with a musical evening to which our friends at the Haven in Grimsby came as usual. We concluded the evening with one of our famous buffet suppers – they have to be good because the Haven always put on a super supper when we go there – usually around October!

We invited Don Owen to take the morning Guild Service on 15th March and Rev. Ann took communion at night. One hymn Don chose cannot be found in any hymn book but it is known as the ‘Guild hymn’ - “One heart, one way”, which is the motto of the Guild. The Guild was set up in 1889 in Leeds for young people, but has changed over the years.

Now, when you look round the Guild meetings, almost everyone is over fifty years of age! As it was also Mothering Sunday all the ladies were given a bouquet to commemorate the day. Don tried to combine the three occasions together as it was also the fourth Sunday in Lent. The Guild was set up to do good work in the Middle East as we do today. Our Guild always donates toward the Nigeria Fund each year.

Towards the beginning of the service Don pointed out what a difference punctuation makes in sentences and gave about five examples – the same words each time, but punctuation marks in different places, showing a completely different meaning! It made us think! He also pointed out that “fear” is full of question marks and full stops and that “faith” is a certainty of what we cannot see or feel! There’s some deep thinking for you!!

Remember – the worth of our lives comes not in what we do or who we know, but who we are.

On Easter Sunday our service was led by Mr Mervin White from Scunthorpe. The first Hymn was that old favourite “Christ the Lord is Risen Today, Alleluia” a wonderful start to a great service. Mervin reminded us we are set free by the Cross of Jesus. A new dawn, a new life, the transforming power of the Light of the World that is given to us, but we must put all this in to practise and our behaviour should change when we know God. Following Jesus means living His way as he fulfils the Plan He has for each one of us.

An uplifting time of worship and fellowship together as we pondered on these Truths once more. Everybody agreed with me that it had been a time of great joy.

Our recent Own Arrangement service was aptly labelled “Too Good To Be True ?” when we concentrated on the John 20 reading when the women who had gone to the tomb burst in on the disciples with the news that Christ was risen. Our service included a Tea and Talk session when we shared in a light-hearted ‘Unbelievable Quiz’ – some of us couldn’t believe some of the answers ! One of our prayers was “Living God, teach us that the gospel is not only wonderful-sounding news but it is also true !”

Next week we shall have our F Team meeting when we meet to plan ahead for events as well as services. This meeting was started back in the mid-90s when David Woodward was our minister and we started planning ahead for our Centenary year in 1997. So it really started off with F for Fund-raising ! It has since become much more than that and could stand for Friendship, Faith, Fun and Fellowship. This time we shall be planning the finer details for our part in the Open Churches Weekend on Sat 16 and Sun 17 May when we open our doors to West Lindsey and beyond !

We hope that some of you will come and join us for a lunch or just a refreshing cup of tea.

Greetings from us all at NKMC.

Advance Notice

On Sunday 7th June, Rev. Paul Wilson will be coming to the circuit. He is the outreach worker for Methodist Evangelicals Together (MET) and comes with a wealth of knowledge and experience.

Paul will be taking the 10.30am service at Gainsborough, then holding a seminar from 3.00-5.00pm at Middle Rasen, before leading evening worship, again at Middle Rasen.

If you are able to come along, it should be a very worthwhile and inspiring time.

Hello to everyone from Upton.

The weather is unseasonably warm, the spring flowers are looking their best and the trees and hedges are springing to life. There is so much to celebrate at this time of year.

At the weekend we celebrate our 193rd chapel anniversary. We are sure we will have a lovely weekend, celebrating with our concert on Saturday and service with Rev. Liz Childs on Sunday.

Patrick and I are also celebrating today with the safe arrival of our 5th grandson born last night. We are proud to welcome Jack into our family and thankful to God for a safe arrival. Another of God's special miracles.

Unfortunately we do not always have celebrations in our lives, and this month we need to remember our friend Phyllis who is in hospital and still very poorly after major surgery. We also need to remember the families of Ann Gladwyn and David Fysh who have recently passed away.

It is a good time to remember the poem "Footsteps" that tells us of God's love for us. He walks alongside us through the good times and carries us on His back when the going gets tough.

Coffee and Chat on Wednesday 13th May 10-30 - 12-00 noon.

That's all for this time.

With love from all at Upton.

God bless!!!

Bind our souls to your own, O Christ, so that we may never be separated from you. Only in you are we fully alive. Only in your light can we truly see and only in your strength can we safely pursue our way. To you we come, O wisdom without end. In you we rest, O mercy without limit. Amen.

Mechtild of Magdeburg (1210-1280)

Loving God, we thank you for your gift of Christ, the Saviour of all, whose love was made real in acts of compassion and known fully through his sacrifice. We thank you that he offered himself freely and for no reward, save that of knowing that he did your will. Help us to be partners in Christ's sacrifice through the witness we bear, the service we offer, the welcome we extend and the kindness we show. In our search for meaning and truth, may the gospel message of Christ's sacrificial love save us from narrow-mindedness and self-righteousness. In our struggles for justice and peace, may the experience of Christ's commitment to your loving purposes, even to the cross, be our inspiration and guide. Amen.
